

Summer Sundays and Mondays

Arrive for a late lazy Sunday afternoon picnic in the Falcondale's grounds. A gourmet feast of smoked salmon, chef's homemade pate with Melba toast and a selection of local Welsh cheeses with oatcakes and celery. Follow this with some Welsh cakes and cream cakes all made by our team of award winning chefs. Ice-cold Pimms will be served or a traditional pot of tea (you choose!)

If you prefer, the above can be served on the hotels terrace or conservatory overlooking the Teifi valley, or if the weather is inclement enjoy in the many comfortable lounge areas or in your own bedroom.

Try your hand at croquet on the many lawned areas – instructions are provided for the un-initiated; and there are many classic board games available for your amusement.

After staying overnight on Sunday enjoy a Welsh breakfast prior to a day at Caehir Gardens (as seen on BBC's Gardeners World, Countryfile and Channel 4's garden party), only 15 minutes away from Falcondale. Tickets for this garden is included in your package, marvel in the creation of this eco-friendly and unique garden.

On your return to the Falcondale dine from the 2AA rosette dinner menu lovingly prepared by the chef's. Using the very best of local produce this menu is seasonal and plentiful.

Following another nights rest and another Welsh breakfast we will wish you a safe journey home (or onwards)!
